

Subject: Deceived by Appearances

1. Discussion: do you agree with the following statements?

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

Beauty is only skin deep.

All cats are grey in the dark.

Appearances are deceptive.

2. Paraphrase the following sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- a) This writer believes we should strive to be happy, healthy and genuine, no matter what images we're presented with.
(It) to be happy, healthy, and genuine, no matter what images we're presented with.
- b) It's important to be aware of what is possible using photo editing software.
(should)..... of what is possible using photo editing software.
- c) Although these words sound quite similar, they are very different.
(despite)..... these words are very different.
- d) As technology develops, the possibilities become greater and greater.
(due)..... become greater and greater.
- e) Back then photographs were analogue, so they were edited by hand using ink and brushes.
(used)..... were edited by hand using ink and brushes.
- f) The ability to turn average photos into something amazing is very useful.
(able).....into something amazing.

Answer key: a. It is believed by this author that we should strive to be happy, healthy and genuine, no matter what images we're presented with. b. We should be aware of what is possible using photo editing software. c. Despite sounding quite similar, these words are very different. d. Due to the technological development, the possibilities become greater and greater. e. Back then photographs used to be analogue, so they were edited by hand using ink and brushes. f. It is very useful to be able to turn average photos into something amazing.

3. Match the halves

mental	phone
zebra	health
mobile	property
subjective	other hand
pull	a funny face
on the	crossing

Answer key: mental health, zebra crossing, mobile phone, subjective view, pull a funny face, on the other hand, intellectual property

3. Do you know the name of the abbey presented in the picture?

Answer key: Westminster Abbey

3. Write two arguments for and two arguments against photo editing.

FOR

AGAINST
